5. Petition - Bus Withdrawal of direct bus links from the Marden Estate to Rake Lane Hospital

To receive a Petition containing 597 signatures in the following terms:

‘The withdrawal of the only bus service from the Marden Estate area of Cullercoats to North Tyneside General Hospital, Rake Lane is very concerning and deeply disappointing for local residents.

This change has left the elderly and vulnerable residents who rely on public transport unable to have a direct link to the hospital in order to attend appointments/consultations or visit family/friends.

The residents of the Marden courteously ask that NEXUS, the private bus companies and North Tyneside Council to consult properly with them and to listen to residents concerns with the view to reinstate the direct bus service.’

6. Petition – Parking control around the triangular green of Tynemouth

To receive a Petition containing 218 signatures in the following terms:

‘As Residents of Percy Park, Tynemouth, we need parking permits, including Seafield View, Percy Park Road. We must be one of the only terraced street in Tynemouth without parking permits. We cannot park outside our houses as visitors take our spaces. This can only get worse come summer and sunny days. Giving parking permits to residents in the village centre has made things even worse for us. Now everyone parks on our street. Where are we meant to go?’
